

New State Employee Series-New Employees

Courses in this category are designed for employees hired into their initial state government position. This pathway will help to engage and onboard the employees into their role, provide expectations of being a public sector employee, and define the employee's role within the global model of state government. Participants may also be seasoned state employees who want to update their skills. The classes in this category are:

- Customer Service
- Diversity Training for Employees
- Ethical Issues in Today's Workplace
- Generational Diversity ✨
- Preventing Sexual Harassment for Employees
- Professional Impact
- State Government Foundations

New Courses for 2014-2015

For a complete description and available dates for each class please see complete class list.